

Support MTW2015 using Social Media 22 – 28 June 2015

Communicating and finding information out via social media is now a huge part of our daily lives. It can be incredibly effective in supporting and helping to raise awareness of important issues, topics and news.

You can support our Music Therapy Week campaign online via Social Media using:

Facebook

Find us and like our page at <https://www.facebook.com/BritishAssocMusicTherapy>

We will be sharing regular updates about the campaign in the run up to and during MTW. You can help to increase our presence on Facebook by liking and sharing posts, commenting on posts, and sharing your own posts relating to all things music therapy.

Twitter

Find and follow us on Twitter using @musictherapyuk and use #MTW2015 in your tweets to support the campaign.

You can help to increase our presence on Twitter by retweeting and favouriting tweets, commenting on tweets, and by using the MTW hashtag as well as other related hashtags such as #musictherapy, #dementia, #autism, #mentalhealth #musicforall

Try to include #musictherapy and #MTW2015 in all your tweets relating to MTW.

For more information on how to use Twitter, visit <https://support.twitter.com/groups/50-welcome-to-twitter>

#MTW2015 is all about raising awareness of music therapy in the UK and one of the most effective ways to do that is online via social media, so getting facebooking and tweeting now and help support #MTW2015!
