

BAMT LEGACY FORM

Thank you for considering a legacy.

Leaving a gift in your will can help the British Association for Music Therapy to achieve our objects.

These are to promote for the public benefit the art and science of music therapy and the use and development of music therapy for children and adults with a wide range of needs, to advance education in music therapy, and to promote understanding of music therapy for the general public.

With the help of donations from supporters such as you, we will be able to continue promoting and developing music therapy in the UK and internationally.

How to leave a legacy

There are several common forms of legacy. E.g. an amount, a residue of an estate, non-cash gifts such as stocks and shares, works of art and other possessions. We strongly recommend that you seek professional advice in deciding which is the most appropriate for you. Find a solicitor. Tell your solicitor you wish to leave a gift to BAMT in your will. Some suggested wording could be

"I GIVE the sum of £_____ [figures] _____ [words]

Or

You could specify the item here _____ to the BRITISH ASSOCIATION FOR MUSIC THERAPY [REGISTERED CHARITY NUMBER 1137807]

to advance its charitable objects."

If you would like your gift to be used for a specific purpose, it would be best to express this as a wish without stipulating it as a binding obligation. This means BAMT will have the flexibility to use its discretion in making the best possible use of your gift, while still carrying out your wishes as closely as possible, in line with the needs of the charity at the time when it is received.

For example, you might express a wish for your gift to be used for:

- Research
- Education
- Project Development (Eg: Music Therapy Services)

If you wish to be more specific or restrictive about how your gift can be used, please contact us so we can discuss how best we can help you achieve your goals for your legacy.

Telling us about your legacy

If you have made a legacy in your will in favour of our charity, or if you are thinking of doing so, thank you. We'd be grateful if you could let us know to help us with our financial planning. Telling us of your plans would not commit you to anything and you would remain free to change your will in the future if you wish.

You can do so by filling out the below form and emailing it to the British Association for Music Therapy via info@bamt.org or post to BAMT, 24 – 27 White Lion Street, London N1 9PD
