

WORKING CREATIVELY WITH DIVERSITY IN THE THERAPEUTIC RELATIONSHIP

Led by Roshmi Lovatt, (Integrated Arts Psychotherapist) this CPD workshop aims to open up an exploration of diverse oppression dynamics present in society, individuals, psychotherapy and arts therapies.

The workshop will combine theory and creative experiential learning to examine aspects of personal identity, power, perceptions of otherness and concepts of modern racism as well as power dynamics as they present in psychotherapy and arts therapies.

This workshop is suitable for all qualified music therapists and you will receive a certificate on completion.

SATURDAY 12TH
