

Think Tank on Music Therapy and Neuroscience

Collaboration, dialogue and training

Friday 14 January 2022 | Free
9.00am - 12.30pm | Online via Zoom

Book your place

a.r.u. | Cambridge Institute for Music Therapy Research

Goldsmiths
UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

Join us for this half-day seminar on music therapy and neuroscience.

You can sign up any time before 13 January.

A link to join the meeting will be sent the day before the event.

- 9.00am    Welcome Note and Introduction
Prof Helen Odell-Miller, CIMTR, ARU
- 9:10am    Challenges and Benefits of Working at the Intersection of Music Science and Music Therapy
Prof. Lauren Stewart, Goldsmith University, London
- 9:25am    Social neuroscience of music therapy - applications and implications for research and training
Prof. Jörg Fachner and Dr. Clemens Maidhof, CIMTR, ARU
- 9:45am    Imagining and remembering: Exploring the mechanisms and consequences of music induced emotions
Dr. Diana Omigie, Goldsmith University, London
- 10:00am   Music Therapy in Neurorehabilitation – learning from Stroke and Disorders of Consciousness research
Dr Alex Street and Dr Jonathan Pool, CIMTR, ARU
- 10:20am   Q&A
- 10:30am   Coffee break
- 11:00am   Roundtable and panel discussion with contributions from heads of music therapy training, incl.

Emma Mclean, Queen Margaret University, Edinburgh
Dr Cathy Warner, UWE, Bristol
Claire Molyneux, CSCI, ARU, Cambridge
Dr Simon Proctor, Nordoff-Robbins
- 11:20am   Open Panel discussion
moderated by Prof Helen Odell-Miller
- 12:15pm   Round up and questions
- 12.30pm   Finish